We've been together now for such a long time
Through every trial we'd ever care to go
When I look back I almost can't believe it
We're not the same people that we used to know

With all the years behind me spent pretending
I didn't need someone like you around
It makes it even harder to imagine
The life I'd be living if I hadn't found...

Someone to hold me
The way that you do
Someone who needs me
The way I need you
Someone to show me
A way that is true
Someone to love me
The way that I love you

When there was no one left for me to turn to
When all the world I knew was fallin' down
Oh there were times I could not face the morning
But everything's changed since the day that I found

Someone to hold me
The way that you do
Someone who needs me
The way I need you
Someone to show me
A way that is true
Someone to love me
The way that I love you
