One, two, one, two, let's go
Hey, hey, hey, hey

There's lots of crazy, crazy things this world will offer you
And there's no way to fake what you've been through
So just hold on to what you know is true

Pull me back again
I need you to hold me from my sin
Hold me back again
I need you to pull me from my sin before I give in

At times it seems there's nowhere left to turn, it's true
I'd like to think that we could help each other
Rise above those things we're going through

Pull me back again
I need you to hold me from my sin
Hold me back again
I need you to pull me from my sin before I give in

One, two, one, two, let's go
Hey, hey

Pull me back again
I need you to hold me from my sin
Hold me back again
I need you to pull me from my sin before I give in Pull me back again before I give in
Pull me back again before I give in
