well she never was the best yeah at following the trends stayed one step above the rest and even though it seemed like the world was crushing on her didn't let it hold her down even hold her back oh no

don't worry you'll show them
there's a fire in your eyes and i hope you'll let it burn there's a scream in your voice
and i hope you'll let it burn until you're heard you're heard

seventeen is just a test yeah and i would recommend that you live with no regrets and even if it seems like the world was crushing on you you shouldn't let it hold you down shouldn't hold you back

oh no
oh no

relax girl
turn down the lights no one can see you shining

relax girl
itll be alright no one can stop you if you tried point of rhythm is the fall await in time to listen to the beating in your mind and if you will seek then you shall find woah oh

youre heard
