Where are the heroes?
It's dark out, the water falls to the ground
I shift gears, no one cares if I make it out
Brake light glare, my blank stare tells what I'm about
Quitting is easy when no one's around
Late, it's too late to get it right
Whenever I try, red lights pass
My life flashes before my eyes
Late, it's too late to get it right
When all I find are villains and zeros
Where are the heroes?
I know you've been here before in your life
I came through
And now you're nowhere left in sight
Leaving is easy when no one's around
Late, it's too late to get it right
Whenever I try, red lights pass
My life flashes before my eyes
Late, it's too late to get it right
When all I find are villains and zeros
Where are the heroes? Where are the heroes?
Where are the, where are the
Where are the heroes?
Where are the, where are the
Where are the heroes?
Where are the heroes? I don't know
Where are the heroes? Are you?
Where are the heroes?
Late, it's too late to get it right
Whenever I try, red lights pass
My life flashes before my eyes
Late, it's too late to get it right
When all I find are villains and zeros
Where are the heroes? Where are the heroes?
Where are the heroes?
Villains and zeros
Where are the heroes?
