Take what I want now
And leave the pain with you
Unmoved by heartache
I move away from you

What if I could run now?
What if I could die?
What if I could make my heart explode
And never cry?

Hate what I am now
Certainly in love
Hate what I have now
you and I in love

What if I could run now?
What if I could die?
What if I could make my heart explode
And never hide

What if I could feel?
What if you could smile?
What if I could make your heart ignite
Just for a while?

What if I could run now?
What I could die?
What if I could make my heart explode
And never hide?

What if I could feel
What if you could smile?
What if I could make your heart ignite
Just for a while

What if I could die now?
What if I could move?
I always loved her
More than anyone for sure
