Blink of an Eye

VERSE 1

Taking my baby pictures out the drawer
If I blink once again I'll be 40 years old
It's so crazy how life goes by
Just mediocre at school but why ask why
Ya see, I was just on the playground
Took a blink, now I'm up on a Greyhound
Hello? Is anyone there?
At my parents door step wondering where
Did it go, so memory lane
Keep the balance in your noggin knowledge fix the pain
I'll refrain from letting you down
So sorry my sorry's are so subliminal now
Wondering how, I got to this point
Don't blink on me homie, yo that's my point
Every year got a story to bring
Last year I was in the cold chasing a dream

CHORUS

Don't blink, life is like a vapor
You're here, you're gone in the blink of an eye
Don't blink, you found the right sound Savior
To every human being all these words apply

VERSE 2

Every blink has got a moment of it's own
Every second got a split second to call your own
Why waste time to be somebody
Go out and get it yourself and reach somebody
You say it's too late, ok I see
You punked out on who you were supposed to be Well supposedly, you tried your very hardest
Have to come to that point to feel like a starving artist
You may have seen, some very rough scenes
That'll just make you great and become best dreams
And live your best life now
Make the masses of the millions all go wow
Tell me what have you done
I gave all of my talents and became that one
A lot of tracks to stack and matter fact a ton
Still up in the midst but the battle's been won

CHORUS

Don't blink, life is like a vapor
You're here, you're gone in the blink of an eye
Don't blink, you found the right sound Savior
To every human being all these words apply

VERSE 3

Hush... Baby don't you cry
Daddy will be back in the blink of an eye
Well.. That's what you believed
You never ever thought that you would ever be deceived
You earned trust and then it was stolen
Like the last frame in the last game of bowling
Family was perfect but life was even better
You sit closed with headphones and same dark sweater
You went to bet your life away
I beg to bet your life will be ok
Stare at the bottle of the Alize
Companionship, to the highest degree
I flip the manuscript, yup a one eighty Pull thru it all, I know you can Look to the sky a be the better woman
Look to be fly and be the better man
Look to the sky and make the better plan

CHORUS

Don't blink, life is like a vapor
You're here, you're gone in the blink of an eye
Don't blink, you found the right sound Savior
To every human being all these words apply
