Soulja City

Intro

Welcome to Soulja City

Yeah, let me show ya how we do this in the south
The west coast, the southwest we reppin the best
Ok so ya know I may be a rookie in this game
But I play like a pro and alumni studio is where you'll find me
With The Madiks beats behind me
So let me tell ya who I am alright
Just for a minute hold up yo hear we go

Verse 1

What's up I'm Relikis partner introduced to the game
I'm in my late teens an early start but I can't complain
I write my rhymes right, I rhyme tight and thankful for that You'll see me on the streets so natural or sporting a hat
Cause I'm in Soulja City the gritty city that's for the rest
Help out ya kin folk promoting sporting the blessed
Yes Master I try to do what no one has done
Put out uranium albums nah really that's just for fun
But where I'm from I'll take flight and go to your city
Put on a show ya won't forget soon for grown folks and kiddies
So get ready here I come to the top watch me grow
I ain't no chi-chia pet when will I stop who knows But remember this take a picture write it down in your log
Snooze ya lose, I get the spoils and I'ma bring it to ya'll
Oh whoa yeah spiritual lyrical in my rhyme
Hey yo it's time for the hook oh it's about the time

Chorus

You've entered Soulja City with veteran troops
Give props to all the troops, Freez is raising the roof
Yeah you're now in my city let me tell you the deal

I was at the bottom but now I've returned to the top of the hill

Verse 2

Like your momma's fed ex package I was lost but now I'm found

Pointing me to the night and then turn me around

I'll take a half step and meet ya half way fella

The shy type I'll step again I bet they call ya mella-yella

That's ok right I got a bro like that

You try and have a conversation and I get one word back

So believe me people from corner stores to steeples

Whether in a vette , a benz, a geo metro or regal

I don't gotta imitate or copy them other rappers

I'll cop ya head back and snap this beat with my flappers

Headsprung to the last song sentence is gone

You don't know the words press repeat come on rap along

So.. You've entered Soulja City with veteran troops

Wait not yet ya fluked, ah man what do I do? Well..

I guess I'll just freestyle back up into my rhyme

Hey yo it's time for the hook

Oh it's about that time? Yeah

Chorus

You've entered Soulja City with veteran troops

Give props to all the troops, Freez is raising the roof

Yeah you're now in my city let me tell you the deal

I was at the bottom but now I've returned to the top of the hill

Verse 3

Hey yo last up enough of my phat track

Hope now you realize that up above has got my back

Adios to you too so go with the greatest mood

Stop mooding back and forth as if you acting a fool

Keep up a straight face be cool play your role and be full

Cause this here my place my place be so clean

You smell the fresh scent like Gain and Tide on the same team

I've resurrected dissected dissect infected

The streets and beats and times thru hip-hop rhymes

Even if it's one that I reach at least it's one at a time

Why do I say what I say, cause I learned from the best

I ain't the greatest but I'm good like a master of chess

Is life a game? Well it consists of a wide narrow path

So choose the right one, ya need help just welcome me back
Cause when I tripped fell slipped fell they called me a sinner
Like Mase a bad boy gone clean now call me a winner

Chorus

Youâ€™ve entered Soulja City with veteran troops
Give props to all the troops, Freez is raising the roof
Yeah youâ€™re now in my city let me tell you the deal
I was at the bottom but now Iâ€™ve returned to the top of the hill

Outro

So I welcome all yaâ€™ll to Soulja City
