When did hell decide the time?
And how did heaven ever find
The body, soul and mind fell out of line
My voice was small and now it's not
I'm screaming words to change the plot
1-2-3 I was counting and forgot

Remind me why
I never went this way
Remind me why

Light image lost the lover
And in my veins began to change
Delusions from a place I've never been before
Layers cover your face
Please know it's not that I forgot
Even though my pulse desires to stop

Remind me why
I promised I would stay
Remind me why

You and me...we wanted more than this

Don't fade, don't let it fade. Don't fade. Don't let it fade. Remind me why
I can't go anywhere, go anywhere.
