Everyday I prayed that I would find a lover
Then I looked into your eyes and I discovered
Something was changing in my life
Turning the darkness into light

When I'm with you I come alive
I feel I'm living in heaven
You make the wrong turn out so right
I'm gonna love you forever

There is not a thing that I would change about you
And my life was never quite the same without you
You made the rain clouds go away
Bringing me sunshine everyday

When I'm with you I come alive
I feel I'm living in heaven
You make the wrong turn out so right
I'm gonna love you forever

In your arms you make me warm
You give me strength to carry on
I know I won't be alone
As long as I'm with you
