There are days that you just get by
Many times that you just wanna cry
There's a place where you run and hide
But in the end you know I want you to see
You can always count on me

Another heartbreak it'll heal in time
It's a hard game this thing called life
Another bad dream keeps you up at night
When you're feeling down I want you to see
You can always count on me

[Chorus]

Let me be the shoulder that you lean on
Let me be the rock beneath your feet
Wipe away the slate we'll start a new one
You'll see baby you can always count on me

Take a deep breath it'll be alright
It's a new day leave the past behind
A little love and faith and you can redefine
Through it all I know I want you to see
You can always count on me

[Chorus]

Let me be the shoulder that you lean on
Let me be the rock beneath your feet
Wipe away the slate we'll start a new one
You'll see baby you can always count on me

There are times in our lives when we're looking for change
Wanna be there for you, make everything okay
Just let it all go, dream your dreams, fly away
I will be there at the end of the day

[Chorus x2]

Let me be the shoulder that you lean on
Let me be the rock beneath your feet
Wipe away the slate we'll start a new one
You'll see baby you can always count on me
