Broken Promises
Ruby Paul Original
Take the key to my heart
You can see inside
Take a look around
Iâ€™ve got nothing to hide
Take this bleeding heart
Open it wide
All youâ€™ll find are broken promises

Itâ€™s so empty where the heart is
All that youâ€™ll find are broken promises

Tabernacle of gold
Shimmering light
Snowy wings of a dove
Disappear in the night
Take this bleeding heart
Open it wide
All youâ€™ll find are broken promises

Itâ€™s so empty where the heart is
All that youâ€™ll find are broken promises

See the fading rose
Wilting and sighing
Let the petals fall
Tasting like wine
Take this aching heart
Slowing dying
All youâ€™ll find are broken promises
