Turn the Key

Let's take a chance and love again
You know the time has come
Let's take a chance
And step right in
We can start again
So take my hand and don't look back
And don't be scared to fall
I'll hold you close and ever keep you
Safe within these walls

TURN THE KEY, TURN THE KEY
TOGETHER YOU AND ME, TURN THE KEY

Let's take a chance and love again
So wrap your arms round mine
Let's take our chance of happiness
It may never come again
You bring me such a gentle love and I feel it growing strong
Like a tree our roots entwined
We can make this place our home

TURN THE KEY, TURN THE KEY
TOGETHER YOU AND ME, TURN THE KEY

You say you're gonna think it through...I've heard that tale before
I know we're gonna make it through...and walk right through the door
