Walking By Your Side

So many years this road I've travelled
My loving friends were by my side
But now my feet are at the crossroads
And it's here our paths divide

Chorus

And when you're sad or feeling lonely
Just keep my memory in your mind
And when you glance behind your shoulder
You'll find me walking by your side

Chorus

So many lives have touched me deeply
So many loved ones I've embraced
So many years my light was burning
But now that flame has burnt away

Chorus

So with the dear ones gone before me
In heaven now we'll all abide
Keep us ever in your memory
Your loved ones on the other side

Chorus
