With a Little Help From the Scbu

1. Didn't you come a little bit too soon?
Couldn't it wait until another moon?
But now you're here, let's raise a cheer
Such tiny fingers, tiny little toes
On your face, a button for a nose
Right out the blue, the gift of you

Chorus Such a tiny bear, needing special care
That's what we'll give to you
Nurse you day and night,
Keep you strong and bright
With a little help from the SCBU (rpt)

2. Didn't you make your mum and daddy proud?
Kicking your legs and crying clear and loud?
Like a bird in spring, you'll spread your wings
Every day you grow a little more
We're biding our time, 'cos you're worth waiting for You're coming on, it won't be long (chorus)

Bridge Sometimes when you laugh and play... I remember the fragile child
As in that tiny crib you lay ...and I can hardly believe my eyes (chorus)
