Girl you've been waiting for a second chance I've tried to change my mind but it's still hard to change

Don't think I want to fake the kiss you give Is just that I don't want to loose this game

Chorus

Lust and Love
don't match at all
a kiss without love is not what you want
if I Could take you
out of all this ride
I wouldn't give you
another second chance

You know I tried to convince myself
to understand that you were just for me
But you made all this just to change my mind
And now you have to face your destiny
I ain't complaining cos' you cheated on me
but is a consequence you will live with and now you'll understand what I could feel Is just a little bit
compared with me

And when you hold me close
I really don't feel Nothing at all

Chorus

Lust n' love
don't match at all
A kiss without love
is not what you want
If I could take you
out of all this ride
I wouldn't give you
another second chance

Solo

Lust n' love
If I could take you
I wouldn't give you

Lust n' love
If I could take you
I wouldn't give you
another second chance
