Lotta things I've loved
I don't love much any more
Lot of dreams I've dreamed
Don't mean what they did before
Only You know know what I need
Yeah it's true
You're changing me

Breakin' my heart
Breakin' my heart a little more every day
I love how You are
Breakin' my Heart in a beautiful way

Lotta life I've lived
I don't want to live again
Gonna give all I am
Cause I don't want to be who I've been
So I stay on my knees
And I pray, pray that You'll keep

Breakin' my heart
Breakin' my heart a little more every day
I love how You are
Breakin' my Heart in a beautiful way

Nothings the same
Now I can see
How tenderly
You're breaking My Heart
You're breaking my Heart

Breakin' my heart
Breakin' my heart a little more every day
I love how You are
Breakin' my Heart in a beautiful way
