Wanna be the black hair,
On the leg of your bride
Wanna be the blue lake,
To your mountainside

Wanna be something you see,
Wanna be something you feel, before I die
Cause there's trouble ahead, trouble aside
Feel like a child too young to cry

Wanna be a black night,
Let your stars run wild
Wanna be a freeway,
Drive your car for lies

Wanna be something you see,
Wanna be something you feel, before I die
There's trouble ahead, trouble aside
Feel like a child too young to cry, just look at me

I wanna be the black dress,
You wear out tonight
I wanna be the blue blood,
That gives you your right

Wanna be something you see,
Wanna be something you feel, before I die
Cause there's trouble ahead, trouble aside
Feel like a child too young to cry, just look at me
Just look at me, Just look at me
