It's almost you had it planned
It's like you smiled and shook my hand and said,
"Hey. I'm about to screw you over big time."
And what was I supposed to do?
I was stuck in between you and a hard place
We won't talk about the hard place.

But I don't blame you anymore
That's too much pain to store
It left me half-dead inside my head
And boy, looking back I see
I'm not the girl I used to be
When I lost my mind, it saved my life.

It's how you wanted it to be
It's like you played a joke on me
And I've lost a friend in the end.
And I think that I cried for days
But now that seems light years away
And I'm never going back to who I was

'Cuz I don't blame you anymore
That's too much pain to store
It left me half-dead inside my head
And boy, looking back I see I'm not the girl I used to be
When I lost my mind, it saved my life.

I think I cried for days
But now that seems light years away
And I'm never going back to who I was

'Cuz I don't blame you anymore
That's too much pain to store
It left me half-dead inside my head
And boy, looking back I see I'm not the girl I used to be
When I lost my mind, it saved my life.

That life seems like light years away
Light years away
And that life seems like light years away
Light years away
