You've got some nerve talking to me like we were friends
You've played the hypocrite once again
So just hold up, I bet it drives you crazy
Makes you torn up, when your friends all talk about me
Just shut up. I hear you talk about how it used to be

You're a public display
Talking down with your distaste

Check me out now, check me out baby
I'm on a roll and it's driving you crazy
You're making fun but it's never gonna phase me
Check me out now, check me out baby
And all the eyes are looking at me
And you always try to look away
But you check me out now, you check me out anyway

You always said that I would never amount to much
But now you're calling saying keep in touch
So just hold up, I bet it drives you crazy
Makes you torn up, when your friends all talk about me
Just shut up. I hear you talk about how it used to be

You show your mental state
With the love that you fake

Hey! Check me out! Check me out!
Hey! How you like me now?

Tell yourself tell yourself that you just dont care
Now that you wanna walk in my shoes
You can't help it now (no excuse)

I left you panic driven shattered catching up in the race
Go wipe the dirt of your face
You can't catch me now
