A million lights and a kick drum
The floor is moving slow
I've got a feelin 'bout this one
And we're still young you know

Whoa-oh
I'm breathing fire and you're COLD
It's not my fault if your heart's grown cold
It's not my fault if your heart's grown cold

For me, another
No, I won't stop
Your eye's are sinking LOW
You can leave but I'm just starting off
Cuz we're still young, you know

Whoa-oh
I'm breathing fire and you're COLD
It's not my fault if your heart's grown cold
It's not my fault if your heart's grown cold

A million lights and a kick drum
The floor is moving slow
I've got a feelin 'bout this one
And we're still young, you know

Whoa-oh
I'm breathing fire and you're COLD
It's not my fault if you're heart's grown cold
It's not my fault if you're heart's grown cold
