trying to forget the past thinking bout where i were what i feel is what i feel and it's not for her my life is changing and it's all because of you girl i feel love girl i thought i lost it once you left everything was cold baby suddenly it was you you rescued me

with just one bliss i fell so hard you took away all the wrongs
and then you made it right you were my light when it was dark baby you made my life so much easier
i'm telling you
you're what i breathe
it's like i'm feeling stronger when i feel your arms around me
the scent of you stays on my mind until i fall asleep at night falling in love wasn't easy (i did it) i choose wisely

and then i chose you (shawty)
the way you walk
the way you talk
it just felt so right i ain't going nowhere, i just got here you can forget about them other girls i've left them behind you're all that's on my mind (mind) remember what i said (i need ya)

i'm telling you

the scent of you stays on my mind

when i'm lying next to you i can't keep my hands to myself your body (?)
and when i pull your hair as i kiss you neck
i feel like temperature rising as you're scratching my back now you're on top i don't want you to stop tell me if you wanna switch i love to give you pleasure when you're curling your toes and screaming my name

you were my light when it was dark (when it was dark)
you're what i breathe (you're what i breathe)
the scent of you stays on my mind
