Used to be my lover, used to be my friend used to be my pride, my joy but now you got to go

(used to be my pride, my joy but now you've got to go)

i can't take the pain no more

it's time you hit the door and don't running back, i think you had your chance you blew it now, i'm gone can only take so much, this time i've had enough what took me so long? i thought that you cared

i thought you really cared for me

i thought that you cared for me

but every time i see your face

i know it just won't be

'coz even in my time of need i reached out to touch
your hand

only i found you weren't around your hands with another man

i thought that you cared for me

i used to have a treasure use to have a pot of gold but no more chasing rainbows it's not for me no more

(but no more chasing rainbows it's not for me no more)

and don't come running back, i think you had your chance

you blew it now, bye bye

can only take so much, this time i've had enough

your hand

only i found you weren't around your hands with another man

i thought that you cared for me

remember that i...

i told you that i loved you so this time i'm the fool

(i'm the fool that fell in love with)

now what will i do?

thought you loved me too

i thought you cared

oh

ya-ee~~
