Sometimes I have walked this road
And I kept my eyes cast down
So afraid I might lose my way
I refused to look around

Just like me not to see
All the lessons I had learned
Have always come in the places where
The road most sharply turned

So take it all in
Turn it around
Keep trusting in
The road you're walking down

The way to your dreams
Can only be found
With one foot in eternity
And one on shaky ground

Other times I've ignored the signs
Said I don't care where I am
I was too busy getting here
To notice there and then

I didn't know it's not where you go
But the time you take each day
To understand all the beauty in
The bumps along the way

So take it all in
Turn it around
Keep trusting in
The road you're walking down

The way to your dreams
Can only be found
With one foot in eternity
And one on shaky ground

Everyone walks a different road
And the signs are never clear

Just don't be fooled by the ones that say
You can't get there from here

Every turn is a lesson learned
And the bumps make us strong
So travel through with a heart that's true
To the road your walking on

Take the detours as you find them
And the shortcuts when you can
With a storm on the horizon
And the dream around the bend

And take it all in
Turn it around
Keep trusting in

The way to your dreams
Can only be found

With one foot in eternity
One foot in eternity
