I played out this scene before too many times
I walked across the crowded room and looked him in the eye
He looked up to me and said, "Would I lie to you?"
But he didn't know what I know, what I'm going to do

So go to hell now 'cause I don't care for you
I don't need you, you're a stone in my shoe
You think I'm stupid, well, I've got news for you
I ain't no cupid and so I say to you

Never mind, my never, never love
Never mind, my never, never love
I say never mind, my never, never love
Never mind, my never, never love

How you gonna change the habit of a lifetime overnight?
You think you're so immortal, so eternal, out of sight
The questions I am gonna ask, aren't the ones you wanna hear
Alone inside your narrow mind, now let's get one thing clear

Unlike Sinatra, you ain't under my skin
What can I tell ya, don't know where to begin Can't find you heart now but who's lookin' anyway
Hasta Luego, adios, I'm on my way
