A little girl cries next door
I just wanna hold her hand
Sometimes it gets so tough
With my head buried in the sand

And everyday more people die
Walk away, avert their eyes
As the death clock ticks, the trigger clicks
Beaten with a crucifix

Bullet proof lies, family ties
Which one's right, no one's wise
In a world that lies

Walk away, tomorrow's another day
Walk away, why not let it fade away
Walk away, tomorrow's another day
Walk away, the problem will go away

A little boy cries next door
I just wanna hold his hand
Sometimes it gets so hard
With my head buried in the sand

The holy squad is filled with hate
Terror strikes Joe Public's fate
TV blood, a crime rate vote
Politics and a suicide note

Who is right and what is good?
Earth and water, flesh and blood
We'd help every bro'

Walk away, tomorrow's another day
Walk away, why not let it fade away
Walk away, tomorrow's another day
Walk away, the problem will go away

Walk away, walk away
Walk away, walk away

Don't look back before you

(Walk away, walk away)
Don't look back before you
(Walk away, walk away)

Walk away, tomorrow's another day
Walk away, why not let it fade away
Walk away, tomorrow's another day
Walk away, the problem will go away

Walk away
(Walk away, walk away)
(Walk away, walk away)
Walk away
(Walk away, walk away)
(Walk away, walk away)

Don't look up, don't look down
(Walk away, walk away)
Just keep on walking away
(Walk away, walk away)
(Walk away, walk away)
You people, keep on walking away
(Walk away, walk away)

Just keep on walking away
Just keep on walking away
