I was in iran looken for my shot gun But found someting alot more beutiful she was standing there, looking at me with that little faint smile.
it was like i was hit by a love grenade

The love grenade was trowen at me and blew up in my face.
from then on me and her
were in love. its al because of that love grenade.

well we lasted long as we can in this new world i had to say i wanted her so bad so i asked her to marry me she turned all crazy.
i wanted to be more than friends

and blew up in my face.
from then on me and her
were in love. its al because of that love grenade.

I was hit by that grneade of love and becacuase of that love grenade

love grenade
love grenade
