1. I saw a girl walking down the street.
The kind of girl that I'd like to meet.
But when I smiled she just turned away.
And here I thought that this could be my lucky day.

2. Went to a party looking for romance.
I saw a girl and I asked her to dance.
She said no no then just turned away.
And here I thought that this could be my lucky day.

3. I asked a girl at the stop and go.
If she would like to see a movie show.
She just ignored me and she walked away.
And here I thought that this could be my lucky day.

Chorus:

My heart went sky high high,
But then she made me feel oh so low.
My heart went sky high high,
But then she made me feel oh so low.
