Hey Ya, Warrior
In the island sun traded in your coup stick for fatigues and gun

Hey Ya, Warrior:
How do you earn your feather now?
How do you earn your feather now?

Hey Ya, Warrior
In a chopper seat
Can't even trust
the little kids you meet

Hey Ya, Warrior:
How do you earn your feather now?
How do you earn your feather now?

Mothers cry
for children lost
Mother cries
when She looks across
a land She filled with 500 nations
What will fill the eyes
of the seventh generation?

Way ya hey ya way ya ho
way ya hey ya hey ya
way ya hey ya...
Hey ya ho

Hey ya, Warrior
In a distant land
tradin' blood for oil
dyin' in the sand

Hey ya, Warrior:
How do you earn your feather now?
How do you earn your feather now?

Children cry
for mother's lost

Mother cries
when She looks across
a land She filled with 500 nations
What will fill the eyes
of the seventh generation?

Way ya hey ya way ya ho
way ya hey ya hey ya
way ya hey ya...
Hey ya ho

Hey Ya, Warrior
Come on home tonight Mother and the People need your strength and light.

Hey Ya, Warrior
earn your feather
here and now
Come home
and earn your feather
here and now...

Mothers cry
for children lost
Mother cries
when She looks across
a land She filled with 500 nations
What will fill the eyes
of the seventh generation?
