Broken soul.
Everybody in moving circles, lost in the smoke.
Time to fight, Fight again for our lives.
Fear in my eyes, sweat on my face. Going to war.
My life is tough but I still I care, and I'll try to stay alive, for you my friends.
But shit, I hit the ground. I don't want to die, oh I don't want to die now.
If I fall down, I'll never forget the faces of my friends.
Broken soul. Lost. Broken Soul.
Everybody lost in the smoke. Forget again.
Broken town for a broken soul, I won't give up, it's my only goal.
War has come, there's no more hope. Going to war.
