Beyond the ways of life, Above the plains of time.
Like no place on earth.
Free of laws, no policy. But here no need , under a sky
of dignity.
Free of laws , no policy the underground of mystery,
No policy.
Right or wrong, glad or sad, all this make no
difference.
Right or wrong, glad or sad, in here they make no sense.
So far away from earth, not possible, unreal.
For which mankind can only dream of.
Can't catch it behind presumption, for wich we're clowns.
Watch them, watch them try to match, the world way out their bounds.
Right or wrong, glad or sad, all this make no
difference.
Right or wrong, glad or sad. In here they make no sense. No difference...
Free of laws , no policy but here no need . Under a sky
of dignity. Free of laws.
