CHORUS

I know you (you beleive in magic magic)
I see you three times a year (you beleive in magic girl?)
I know you (do you beleive in magic magic)
You Make Love & Then Dissapear (You'll be my magic girl)

I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)
I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)
I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)
I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)

~Soul Nana~

Your in and out of my life I (try and stay awake)
But when I wake up in the morning girl you're gone

Your so beautiful I (wish that you would stay)
But when it comes to you I can't hold on

I don't know your name,
Can't remember how we met
I don't even know where your from,
I'm under your spell (it feels like a dream)

We make love then you put me to sleep, oh whoa

I know you (you beleive in magic magic)
I see you three times a year (you beleive in magic girl?)
I know you (do you beleive in magic magic)
You Make Love & Then Dissapear (You'll be my magic girl)

I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)
I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)

I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)
I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)

~Red~

(Just do it)

I'm not the kind to believe in magic
But she pops out of nowhere like a rabbit

Ah, where she go? I need to know,
Got me feeling like a fein craving snow I,

Wanna kick but she running through my veins
In the late night's not a good look
Wouldn't put her down like a good book
Mystically, physically gettin' involved

And until I see her,
Things won't be the same,
I'll be free from this spell
(When I finally know her name)

And until I see her,
Things won't be the same,
Until I find my cure
(And when I finally find her I'll be like)
I know you (you believe in magic magic)
I see you three times a year (you believe in magic girl?)
I know you (do you believe in magic magic)
You Make Love & Then Dissappear (You'll be my magic girl)

I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)
I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)
I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)
I wanna know where you go I (I wanna know where you go I)
