I'm gonna leave this place
I've made a snap decision
I'm gonna find another earth
And start my own religion

There, I'm shooting through space
Where there ain't no division
I'm gonna see some change
That you wont see on the television
No no ooh

Countdown started
Over day, we parted
Leaving you is hardest
Till the song kicking in and I'm ready to go
[Chorus (2x)]
I've got my moon boots on
And I'm the man on the mission
I've built a rocket to the sky
Gonna say goodbye, Gonna cut of all transmission
Yeah
(yeah yeah)
Im in a far place
A stranger in a distant land
I've cut my parachute off
Ohh, To see if I could stand

I'm heading for a great new world
Somewhere were there ain't no fears
It's all gonna look and sound the same,
The only difference is that you're not here,
You're not here, Nooo

Countdown started,
Over day, we parted
I've been brokenhearted
Till the song kicking in and I'm ready to go
[Chorus]
yeah yeah yeah...
(she said why (5x))
She said why you're always getting at your face boy
(she said)

You're never happy while you're living in this place boy
(she said)
She said why you're all leaving us behind more (she said)
You always whine, You always wrap up your mind
[Chorus]
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah.. (ah, ah, ah)
I'm gonna leave this place
I've made a snap decision
I'm gonna find another earth
and start my own religion
