(Oh)
(Yeah-ay-yeah)
(Mhmm)

Letting you go is pretty damn difficult
Coz there was a time I would be for you
What you need for me (I would do what)
Whatever to be rolling wit' u
And you know I took it as far as I can go
So I'ma go lay it out right for you
You're not good to me (I know I've been)
Blind but I can open my eyes

Coz then I see just what you are
Not for me, I don't why
I wanted you. I don't want you.
I deny. Ohh.

All that you did and all that you didn't
All that you said and all that you wouldn't
Deny, I deny it
Defy, everything. Ohh.
All that we were and all that we called up
All that you were and all that you made up
Defy, I defy it
I deny everything you are

And everything we were
And everything you are
And everything we were, and...

You took your time
Well baby you should take up all of mine
So when I said you should be you don't question me
When I'm telling you (I don't want you)
Hiding up my mind anymore

I don't want you, you can go
Leave my keys and close the door
I don't need somebody like you
I deny. Ohh. I deny!

All that you did and all that you didn't
All that you said and all that you wouldn't
Deny, I deny it
Defy, everything. Ohh. (you were)
All that we were and all that we called up
All that you were and all that you made up
Defy, I defy it
I deny everything you are

And everything we were
And everything you are
And everything we were, and...

Don't tell me
You never thought that we would come to this
Standing here, giving up all that we have been Wooahh! And don't blame me
This is not about what I have done
I've done more, I could do, still we fought
Still you try me, but baby;

I DENNNYYY-I-I!
(Wooooo)

(All that you did and all that you didn't)
(All that you said and all that wouldn't)
(Deny, I deny it)
(Defy, everything. Ohh.)

I DENY IT!

All that we were and all that we called up (OHHH-WOAH)
All that you were and all that you made up
Defy, I defy it (woooooo)
I deny everything. Ohh.

All that you did and all that you made up
All that you said and all that you wouldn't (WOAH-OH-
OH)
Deny, I deny it (woooooo)
Defy, everything. Ohh.
All that we were and all that we called up
All that you were and all that you made up
Defy, I defy it
I deny everything you are

And everything we were
And everything you were
And everything we were, and...

(Woah-oh)
(I deny)
