What's it gonna be?
Are you willingly walking away from this?
What's it gonna take?
Can you really break this love?

Where you gonna go?
Tell me do you know when is your heart in need?
Cause if you leave, baby then leave,
Make up your mind before you shut the door,

Cause if there's a chance,
We might've missed.
And if there's a ray of light in this,
Baby you should know that this is where my heart takes over, over, over

Going back in time,
You know we have tried too hard to let this thing
Almost disappeared, til' we made it here baby

And look me in the eye, promise I won't cry
This is your choice to make,
Cause if you go, baby then go,
You change your mind I won't be here no more

Cause if there's a chance,
We might've missed.
And if there's a ray of light in this,
Baby you should know that this is where my heart takes
over, over, over

And if there's a small piece left of us,
Somewhere in the battles we have lost Baby look at me cause this is where my heart takes over
Over,
Over

this is where my heart takes over, over,
this is where my heart takes over, over,
this is where my heart takes over, over
this is where my heart takes over, over,

What's it gonna be?
Are you willingly walking away from this?

Cause if there's a chance,
We might've missed.
And if there's a ray of light in this,
Baby you should know that this is where my heart takes
over, over, over

And if there's a small piece left of us,
Somewhere in the battles we have lost
Baby look at me cause this is where my heart takes over, over, over

this is where my heart takes over, over,
this is where my heart takes over, over,
this is where my heart takes over, over,
this is where my heart takes over, over,
