I didn't say it but I meant to tell you
I didn't call but I was just about to
I know you're mad and thinking you know where I've been
I know its 5am but I can explain
I lost my jacket, had no credit on my phone
I was worried about you here alone
I tried, but babe I couldn't get a taxi
I'm really tired, just wanna crawl in next to you

And I'm sorry that I'm so late
And I'm sorry I'm in this state, baby
I'll make it up to you, baby

Oh baby, open the door
Open up, open up
I promise never no more
Open up
I will be a good girl
I will be a good girl
So baby let me back in
Open up, open up
Don't make me ask you again
Open up
I will be a good girl
I ain't sleeping on the damn floor
So now open up the damn door

I hear the TV so I know you're in there
You wanna punish me but this is not fair
I pay the rent and do the same things you do
I lost the keys and if you keep this up I will

Find a way to kick the door down
I'm not playing, unlock the door now
Baby, yeah, just call the police
Baby, yeah

Oh baby, open the door
Open up, open up
I promise never no more

Open up
I will be a good girl
I will be a good girl
So baby let me back in
Open up, open up
Don't make me ask you again
Open up
I will be a good girl
I ain't sleeping on the damn floor
So now open up the damn door
Yeah, open up, open up
Open up, open up
I ain't sleeping on the damn floor

And I'm sorry I'm in this state, baby
Oooh

Oh baby, open the door
Open up, open up
Open up
I will be a good girl
I will be a good girl
So baby let me back in
Open up, open up
Don't make me ask you again
Open up
I will be a good girl
I ain't sleeping on the damn floor
Open up, open up
Open up, open up
I ain't sleeping on the damn floor
