I didn't have a choice
You never gave me one
You were so perfect in my eyes, eyes, eyes
We left our heartbeat cry
You were my lullaby
You were my heart
You were my life, life, life

I, I, I, I'm stumbling
I, I, I, I'm crawling
I should've seen through
It was too good to be true
I, I, I, I'm running

I should feel like cursing out your name
I should feel so crazy I'm insane
I should feel like crying til' i die
I should feel like breaking down inside
but all i feel is stu-stu-stupid
And so fo-fo-foolish
And so stu-stu-stupid
You see
And you should feel so stu-stu-stupid
And so fo-fo-foolish
That your lo-lo-losing me

You looked me in the eye
Said I'm yours until we died
I think we both know that you li-li-lied
I never realized you were Jeckyll & Hyde
I only saw one side-side-side-side

I, I, I, I'm stumbling
I, I, I, I'm crawling
I should've seen through
It was too good to be true
I, I, I, I'm running

I should feel like cursing out your name
I should feel so crazy I'm insane
I should feel like crying til' i die
I should feel like breaking down inside

but all i feel is stu-stu-stupid
And so fo-fo-foolish
And so stu-stu-stupid
You see
And you should feel so stu-stu-stupid
And so fo-fo-foolish
That your lo-lo-losing me

I don't really care if your giving her up
Stayed to long, I took enough
I don't really care if your giving her up
Giving her up, giving her up
I already know what your all about
I don't wanna stay just to figure out
Stupid is loving you now

I should feel like cursing out your name
I should feel so crazy I'm insane
And so fo-fo-foolish
You see
And so fo-fo-foolish
