Early in the morning I sit up in my bathroom, oh
Baby in the perfect silence
I can't hide it, it's about enough now
Baby we been stalling
And I been telling fairytales
This is taking all my focus, I can't do this There's so much you don't know

And I been fighting dark demons
Tring to make way for light
But i just dig myself deeper down
I gotta make it right

Ooh it's time to talk about truth now
It's time I, it's time that you
Know what you're getting yourself into now
These white lies, these white lies
Turning into shades of grey, go darker everyday, They just won't go away, away
Ooh, it's time to talk about the truth now
These white lies, these white lies

You been kinda perfect
And we would be a perfect match
If I only had it in m, I'm so sorry
Never meant to hurt you

And I been fighting dark demons
Tring to make way for light
But i just dig myself deeper down
I gotta make it right

Ooh it's time to talk about truth now
It's time I, it's time that you
Know what you're getting yourself into now
These white lies, these white lies
Turning into shades of grey, go darker
everyday, They just won't go away, away
Ooh, it's time to talk about the truth now
These white lies, these white lies

Bad excues, baby it's true, I can't excuse this

Causes white lies turns to black lies and I lose

Ooh it's time to talk about truth now
It's time I, it's time that you
Know what you're getting yourself into now
These white lies, these white lies
Turning into shades of grey, go darker
everyday, They just won't go away, away
Ooh, it's time to talk about the truth now
These white lies, these white lies (x2)
