It is a question that people have been asking for eternity, is there a heaven? if so, whats it like?

Will i see my homie chris there he got smoked by some fools who shouldn't be alive im tryin to cope but its just so hard dear god will i see him on the boulevard can you tilt your hat to the side if you want or do you got a have it straight to the front ive been saggin dickies ever since i was eight and i wonder will somebody try to tell me i cant i won a knife at the carnival they have out at jenson its just for good luck not for a weapon i wonder can i take it well thats if i make it but i dont wanna walk around all butt naked will my hydraulics work up in tha clouds do people start complainin' if the music is loud and these are the things that i ask the reverend excuse me sir but can mexicans go to heaven

The other day i spoke to the reverend to see if he said that mexican's could go to heaven
When i grow old no one know
That this life is a blessin
I wanna know is there a Mexican Heaven, Lord will i see my pitbull g baby he he died i don't know how Will my grandfathers beer breath be real bad or will they make him take mints or tha white tic tacs do the r&b and hip hop radio stations play our raps or do they still be hatin people owe me money from previous business i wonder can i get it with a little bit interest and what about drop outs with no education i cant spell good but i know multiplication do they got real tortillas for all the races or them fake little skinny ones like some places i know my sancha is out of the question but on tha cool she got love for a mexican will my homies pitch in or wanna smoke for free will they have gas money or depend on me can i roll on gold streets in my 57 let me know can mexicans go to heaven

The other day i spoke to the reverend
When i grow old no one know

Will they charge arm and leg for the new mike jordans or sell em half price so everyone can afford em what about tobacco products will they ban em one thing about cigarettes i just cant stand em is minimum wage all they offer my people does my uncle gota marry someone just to be legal will he get dirty looks cause he cant speak english do the chicks dress up or do they show their chiches what kind of clubs do they have in heaven i dont dance techno and no 2steppin i got a few warrants will they follow me there or can i start clean with a record thats clear is my pitbull there, his name is plex he choked on his chain jumpin over the fence im sorry if im askin you too many questions i just gotta know can mexicans go to heaven
