why would i ever
why would i ever

wait a minute baby tell me what's up lately i've been knowing you too long why you hiding something thought we was through with fronting i can tell there's something wrong (i can tell) how could you even think that i wouldn't have your back it's me and you against the world no matter what we go through i'ma always roll with you i promise i'll be your girl

why would i ever
why would i ever

why would i ever
baby i'll never cos i just wanna know how to get through cos you put together every piece of me baby you, you know exactly what i need to be so tell me

why would i ever

wait a minute hold up they said when you rolled up you was yelling off the chain you're mad when i can't make time should of known that i'm on my grind baby know it's all on your brain now we've been through some problems trust me we can solve them we got too much in it to lose (so much in it) you've always been my best friend stop placing your bets when baby i'm not leaving you (i'm not leaving you)

why would i ever

tell me why... did you ever question (question everything we spend on) between us (we got that) have you seen us (we got that) we got that love

why would i ever

i'm not leaving you, no i'm not leaving you i won't leave you in the cold, in the cold i'm not leaving you, i'm not leaving you baby i know i love you
