When I look to see the sun, I can feel positive and negative at once Cuz it could be a brand new day or the same old one So I wait just to see exactly what kind of day its gonna be
I can feel that either way I, I guess I got lucky

Cuz I could be gone today, tomorrow could be close or it could be so far away
And I guess what im trying to say, no matter how it goes down now I feel so

When I look the see the moon, I can feel those before me who've all done it too
I can see through all me troubles and somehow they got thru cuz were all family even if we don't act like it or just don't see
I guess Im thankful for who you think we could be

it could be so far
And i guess what im trying to say, no matter how it
happy, today

There could maybe be something else, Not something you see or touch but something that you felt
And there could maybe be a road Like underground sin, it stays in the corners of my soul

Cuz i could be gone today, tomorrow could be close or
it could be so far
goes down now I feel so

it could be so far
