It's hard for me when I
Think about the things that never been
They keep coming back again
Like they've got something to prove
I love my memories but they have a way
Of controlling me at times
And I'm so lost without you yeah yeah

And I can't get far from it.
And from what went wrong
And I know it's stupid cuz it's been so long.
But father I give away the more I hold on
It's just this feeling I get
It's like I'm not done yet
I'm not done yet

I think about those times
When we were young
And everything was so brand new
And our words were so true and you
Looked into my eyes that one last time
If I had known back then
What I'd be living with today
We might have stayed but

I can't get far from it.
And from what went wrong
And I know it's stupid
Cuz it's been so long.
But father I give away
The more I hold on
It's like I try to forget
Some how I'm not done yet
I'm not done yet

It's hard for me when I
Think about the things that never been
They keep coming back again
Like they've got something to prove
It's like I'm not done yet
