It happened last night, we were feeling adventurous
We put on our hells and went out for a walk
More for a drink and to have a few eyes on us
Jenny and I slipped to town for some talk
Me and Jenny, twinklin' like crystal and pennies
Two hot girls on a hot summer night
Looking for love

"Look Jenny" I said, "It's Dwight, he just came in"
I got excited, but Jenny was quick
The kettle was on and I started up steamin'
And I knew by her flirtin' she was up to her tricks
Me and Jenny, twinklin' like crystal and pennies
Two hot girls on a hot summer night
Looking for love

A song on the jukebox made me feel lonely
The kettle boiled down and evaporated me
But who was to notice 'cause Jenny was glowin'
And Dwight was all over her like a honeybee
Two hot girls on a hot summer night
Looking for love

Maybe I shoudn't have worn such a long dress
Maybe he thinks I'm too young or too old
If I only hadn't been born with these sad eyes
Perhaps I'm too shy or too bold

Me and Jenny twinklin' like crystal and pennies
Two hot girls on a hot summer night
Looking for love

"Thanks for introducing us" said Dwight, polite
And I waved goodnight
I wondered why it wasn't me
I guess it's just the time's not right
Two hot girls on a hot summer night
