Love is missing in my life
Since I turned and walked away
They say time will heal all wounds
Then why am I still unchanged
If faith is proof of things unseen
If hope and love are the things I need
Then I can't stay the same
The world is moving on without me

I will lift my eyes
I will lift my voice
All consuming love

Defining everything but You
Has left me desperate and confused Clinging to Your promises I won't be left alone or forsaken
I know I can be so much more
Still hear You calling me to walk Your way
As I step into the light I sing

Time for movin' on
Time for movin' on

Time for movin' on is now
Time to make amends
Time for youthful sins to die
It's time I learn to stand
