They say to follow your dreams but it's harder than it seems

I'm walking out one day at a time
I don't know if I'll make it or how long I can take it
I'm fighting back this fear in my life

But I hear you telling me

Be still and know that I am God be still and know that I've got the world in my hands
When your life is crashing down on you when your world is sinking in
Be still be still

I feel the world is crushing me like it lies on my shoulders
I find it hard to even lift up my hand
You never put this on me I think I've lost all my peace
Too busy watching this whirlwind

But I hear you telling me

Be still and know that I am God be still and know that I've got the world in my hands
When your life is crashing down on you when your world is sinking in
Be still be still be still

Keep your head up Keep your head up Keep your head up Keep your head up

Even in the storm I'll never let you go I've called you by name I'll never let you go

Be still and know that I am God be still and know that I've got the world in my hands
When your life is crashing down on you when your world is sinking in
Be still be still
