You can call me in for the knockout
Stack 'em up one at a time
Take 'em down take 'em out in the first round
Will broken chains no compromise

There goes my innocence
I lived in ignorance
This all starts makin' sense
The road less traveled

You say it's better this way
And things will not be the same
If I could stop my head
And start to believe

The only way I'm movin' is forward
Stretched me a lot but no lookin' back
Pulled off the scales one by one with Your words
It cut me through like a knife in hand
