I think my mind's gone crazy
'Cause there's got to be something more
What is this burning inside me
Knocking at my door
What was it You did to me
Or was it You getting through to me

Nothing can stop me now
When the deep comes alive
I'm breaking darkness down with light

All fear has risen up off me
The renewing of my mind
I tear down your walls now
It happens all the time
I won't stop till it's over
But O God they say that it's over

So let the dead go die
You've got to live your life
So let the dead go die
But I will follow Christ

Nothing can stop me
Nothing can stop me now...
