(Written and Composed by Scott Woodruff)

(Guest Vocals: Jeff McDermott of Clear Conscience)

Fire keeps on burnin' me down White fire pick me up when I'm down

Nuff, I can't get enough your the only thing that I love the only thing that I know been walking down that road yeah baby I'm a soldier no direction to go to sleeping all alone now I got no reason to (go)

Pick me up pick me up when I'm down yes the sound mixing east coast and then we are west bound singing red light yellow light fuck it lets go the fire is still burning that's the style of the show Sometimes you hear things you don't want to find out make one mistake rumors flying all about I said there troubles in the air, and its spinning around when it gets back to you, it lift your feet off the ground there is only one person, the one you love and trust the most rocking reggae music strait from east coast we all got our days, you know that everyone gets down nothing in the world that will ruin this night not tonight
not tonight
Until the day I (die)
