Where did your mind go,
was it on a magic carpet ride?
Or playing in the snow?
Looking in your eyes used to say it all
Now all that's there is a glossy eyed stare
Can't be your lover
Can't be in your life
All you need is a drug-lovin' wife
Legs entwined while sweet words were spoken
Must have been all that shit we were smoking
In your eyes...so far away
Wishing I could save you someday
(Chorus)
Misery loves company
That's all that we were Just two lost souls
Snuggling in our black hole
(Chorus)
