Funny are the things you think at 3am
I'm lying awake again
Shadow player
Silent prayer, Oh I'm
Torn between what is good and what is aggressive
C.C. always says they come in twos with me
But who is forgiven, what is beautiful?
Dejavu: it was snowing
You outside in your t-shirt
While we clung
So go inside it's cold, but you said you didn't want to let me go
My car slipped on ice on my way home
That's when you let me go
The other thread thinned to breaking point
Like Noah's wife I watched them leave
Let the rain begin (Flash forward full years circle
The grease is separating in my chili
But darling I always did know how to work it)
