Control:

This is control. This is control. And now for the race that keeps going day and night. The final Trans-America trial for the championship of the world.

Ten, nine, eight, seven, six, five, four, three, two, one.

Trains gone!

Here's a surprise-look at that Rusty go. He passes

Bobo. He's got a head of steam and he's mad to show the big boys. He's chasing

Electra. He's chasing

Greaseball. What's the champion gonna go about it?

Oh my God! Race

cancelled. Race cancelled. Who did that? Re-run in fifteen minutes.
